

ABOUT PAUL JOHNSON

In October 2011, Paul Johnson, affectionately known to many people as 'Uncle Putty', unexpectedly went to be with the Lord. Paul was renowned throughout the state as a strong Christian leader, mentor, hunter, musher, crabber, outdoorsman, caregiver and friend.

Through his life, Paul mentored many young people in the region. In teaching them a great deal about subsistence, giving, and life, he was always patient and modeled the humble and generous love of Christ.

In the summer of 2013, volunteers will construct a work shop for campers in honor of Paul Johnson. Through the PJMS, Paul's legacy of mentorship will continue, and the impact his life had on so many will be passed on for generations.

OPPORTUNITIES TO GET INVOLVED

Direct Contributions

Contributions of any size are welcome. All donations are tax-deductible, and can be made online at: www.covenantbiblecamp.org.

You can also contribute by writing a check to 'Covenant Bible Camp' (memo: 'PJMS'). Please mail checks and donated items to:

The Auction:

During the Iditarod, on March 8, 2013, we will hold an auction in Unalakleet in Paul's honor to raise funds for the building materials for the PJM Shop. If you would like to donate a valuable item or service to the auction, please contact the Camp Director, Nick Bruckner: nick@covenantbiblecamp.org

Tools:

The shop is also in need of several new or gently used tools for campers. If you would like to send us tools in excellent or new condition, please contact the Camp Director, Nick Bruckner at nick@covenantbiblecamp.org.

Paul Johnson Memorial Shop

Covenant Bible Camp
Unalakleet, AK

ABOUT THE SHOP:

Every year, over 400 campers (ages 9-25) come from villages and communities across the state to spend a week or more at Covenant Bible Camp in Unalakleet.

Our goal is to have the Paul Johnson Memorial Shop completely funded and built by May so that we can provide this summer's campers with the opportunity to participate in meaningful, hands-on projects including building ulus, wood-working, mechanic work, and fixing things.

Please consider partnering with Covenant Bible Camp to make the Paul Johnson Memorial Shop a reality!

PJM SHOP DRIVE

In an incredible acknowledgement of Paul's legacy, ProWest has committed to cover the considerable freight costs to get the building materials to Unalakleet. NSEDC funding has been designated to help with the cost as well. Vendors have offered Bible Camp considerable discounts to set the cost of construction materials and freight at $41,000. As of February 2013, we are seeking $21,750 to completely fund the shop by May 2013.

Project Goal
